MANOA SETS NEW HIGH RECORD FOR CARGO

Matson Liner Rides 60-Mile Gale "Like a Duck;" Brings 77 Cabin Passengers

With her forward deck cluttered by every imaginable kind of freight, from live poultry to trestle steel, caterpillar tractors and locomotive boilers and cargo of every kind crammed each inch of space in the hold, the Matson steamer Manoa, Capt. Francis M. Edwards, docked at Pier 15 at 8 o'clock this morning, bringing the biggest cargo ever brought from San Francisco only by any steamer of any line. There were 8146 tons of cargo, and it loaded the steamer down so heavily that her forward deck rails were only about three feet above the planking of Pier 15 when she came alongside. One could easily step from the pier aboard the forward deck, without needing a gangplank.

Although American-Hawaiian steamers have brought larger cargoes to Honolulu, they have never brought so much cargo from San Francisco only as the Manoa did this morning. She broke all records of Matson steamers, and her arrival gave the stevedores the time of their life. They also had the Hilenian's 3616 tons to wrestle with, as she arrived from Seattle this morning and docked at the railroad wharf.

Meets Northwest Gale.

"We had had weather, a northwest gale, the first day or two out from San Francisco," said Captain Edwards, in telling of the voyage. "The Manoa rolled through it, however, just like a duck, although the wind was blowing from 50 to 60 miles an hour. No damage was done. We didn't have really good weather until the last two days."

On the Manoa's last voyage here from the mainland she brought about 7200 tons. Her cargo arriving today is almost 1000 tons larger. Passengers arriving on the Manoa numbered 77, including many tourists, and a good-sized list of returning Honolulu residents, including Duke Kahanamoku, Mrs. G. W. Kirkaldy, Clinton J. Hutchins, R. S. Blake, Merle Johnson, "Billy" Wareham and others, according to Chief Steward J. E. Farrell.

Cargo arriving on the liner included 6773 for Honolulu, 1995 for Kahului, 257 for Port Allen and 21 for Kana. There were 124 packages of express matter and 214 bags of mail.

Dr. R. J. McAdory, surgeon of the Hill liner Great Northern while she was on the run to this port, arrived on the Manoa to visit his mother, who lives here.

15-DAY PENALTY GIVEN MASTER OF MIKAHALA

Capt. Moses Naopala Loses License for Fortnight; Did Not Make Soundings

For failure to take a cast of the lead to verify his position, Capt. Moses Naopala, master of the Inter-Island steamer Mikahala which grounded near Kalaupapa landing, windward Molokai, April 27, has had his license suspended for 15 days by Supervising Inspector John K. Bulger of the first district. Mr. Bulger made his decision public today. The hearing was held yesterday.

"After careful consideration of the testimony adduced in connection with the grounding of the S. S. Mikahala," says the decision, "under your command on the morning of April 27, 1916, when she grounded near Kalaupapa landing while the vessel was running between eight and nine knots per hour at which time a strong south wind was blowing, heavy rain squalls and weather foggy, knowing at this time that the steamer was in close proximity to the land and on soundings you should have taken a cast of the lead to verify your position, which you failed to do and as stated by you in your testimony had you done so your vessel would not have grounded."

"Therefore, under authority of Section 4450 of the U. S. Revised Statutes, your license is suspended for the term of fifteen (15) days from the 20th of May, 1916, for inattention to your duties in not taking a cast of the lead to verify your position, which had you done so would have prevented your vessel from grounding."

The Mikahala, it will be remembered, was pulled from the rocks undamaged only a short time after she went aground by the U. S. Lighthouse Tender Columbine, Capt. Frank T. Warner, which happened along in less than an hour after the accident. The Columbine got a line aboard the Mikahala and pulled her clear in 10 minutes before 6 a. m. The Columbine also rescued the British bark British Yeoman as she was drifting ashore in a kona gale January 16 at Port Allen.

BRITISH SKIPPER HEARD NOTHING OF NEW LAW

At 6:30 this morning the British steamer Coolgardie, here yesterday afternoon for bunkers, steamed for San Francisco, having cleared at 9 o'clock last night.

When the steamer docked at Pier 7 late yesterday, her master, Capt. H. A. Thomson, was asked if his crew had seamen's certificates, as required under the Seamen's Act. He replied that he had heard nothing of the act as applied to foreign ships, which became effective March 15, and said the law was news to him.

As his sailors had British certificates showing them to be able-bodied seamen, British Consul E. L. S. Gordon was enabled to arrange matters satisfactorily so the crew could be certified and the ship clear without trouble.

The Coolgardie is taking a 2500-ton cargo of wool and zinc concentrates to San Francisco from Australia. She was recently purchased by James Wardle & Co. from her old owners, William Crosby & Co.

MAVERICK ABANDONED AT BATAVIA, STORY OF WILLIAM BOYDEN

That the American steamer Maverick has practically been deserted by her owners is stated by William Boyden, who returned to Honolulu Saturday in the Philippine steamer Governor Forbes, after serving as first assistant engineer of the Maverick's new crew. He left here in the Shinyo Maru last November.

The Maverick is at Batavia, Java; her agent there has advanced $25,000, and his cables to her owners in the states remain unanswered, according to Boyden's story. She is on the British blacklist, and the Batavia agent is withdrawing his aid. A prospective purchaser withdrew his offer when he learned of her troubles.

Arms and munitions for an Indian rebellion are believed to have been in the Maverick, which left San Pedro a year ago to meet the schooner Annie Larsen, carrying arms and ammunition for her. They missed each other and in June the Maverick left Hilo for Java.

Boyden said he was told by an offi-

MENARY NOW HAS CLAIMS AGENT JOB HERE

Because increasing freight and passenger business handled by the local Matson Navigation Company agency, Castle & Cooke, Ltd., has made another man necessary in the shipping department, Charles A. Menary, who has been claims agent of the company here, will go into the shipping department tomorrow morning and his place filled by Robert V. Menary, for the last two years purser of the Matson liner Wilhelmina.

Manager John H. Drew of Castle & Cooke's shipping department, today confirmed rumors of the change. "It will become effective tomorrow morning," he said. "Mr. Menary will become claims agent, while Mr. Charles Drew will be employed in the shipping office. It gives us an extra man available in the office."

The new claims agent arrived on the Manoa this morning, serving as purser for the voyage down from San Francisco. Mr. Menary is one of the most popular pursers in the employ of the Matson line. He has been in the Matson service for three years, first as purser of the Enterprise, then of the Lurline, and for the last two years as purser of the Wilhelmina. His new position caused him to receive many congratulations when he arrived today from the coast.

Mr. Menary has been succeeded as purser of the Wilhelmina by L. E. Hamilton, former purser of the Manoa, who made his first trip last week, arriving from San Francisco on his new boat last Tuesday. He will go out tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock on his first outward trip as the Wilhelmina's purser.

The Manoa's new purser, succeeding Mr. Hamilton, will be Wilmot McKenzie, who is now freight clerk on the Wilhelmina.

The New Discovery for Kidneys, Rheumatism and Backache Will Do For You

Send 10 cents with name of this paper to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., for a large sample package of "An-Uric." It will convince any one suffering from kidney, bladder, backache, that it is many times more active than lithia, and dissolves uric acid in the system as hot water melts sugar; besides being absolutely harmless, it preserves the kidneys in a healthy state by thoroughly cleansing them. It clears the heart valves and checks the degeneration of blood-vessels and regulates blood pressure. "An-Uric" is an insurance agent against sudden death. Send to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N.
